

The Mercy of God

Psalm 103:1-22

1. God's mercy involves His _____ (vv.1, 8).
2. God's mercy involves His _____ (vv.2-5).
3. God's mercy involves His _____ (vv. 8-9).
4. God's mercy involves His _____ (v.10).
5. God's mercy involves His _____ (vv.11-12).
6. God's mercy involves His _____ (vv.13-14).
7. God's mercy involves His _____ (vv.15-19).
 - a. It is _____. (Ps. 100:5; 138:8).
 - b. It is _____. (Ps. 89:24, 28).
 - c. It is _____. (Rom. 9:14-23).
8. God's mercy involves our _____.
 - a. We should _____ the Lord (Ps. 103:20-22).
 - b. We should _____ for the Lord's help.
(Ps. 69:13-16)
 - c. We should _____ our bodies to God for His use
(Rom. 12:1-2).

● Review and Discuss

According to Psalm 103:1, 8, upon what is God's mercy based?

Name the Lord's benefits spoken of in Psalm 103:2. What role does God mercy play in these benefits?

What does Psalm 103:10 tell us about God's abundant mercy toward us?

From Romans 9:14-23, what do we learn about God's mercy?

What should be our response to God's overwhelming mercy? Give verses that show this.

● Further Consideration

Is there anything in your life that you feel is beyond the limits of God's mercy? What do Ephesians 2:4, Psalm 145:8, and Psalm 103:8 say about this?

Explain Lamentations 3:22 in your own words. What does this tell you about God's mercy?

What do you think it means in Psalm 106:44-46 that "He remembered His covenant" (see also Lev. 26:41-42)?

Compare Psalm 103:11-12 with Numbers 14:18-19. Explain your understanding of how God deals with physical consequences as well as eternal consequences of our sins.

How has the Holy Spirit motivated you through this study of the great mercy of God?